Application for Summer Camp Tuition Assistance

The Orange County Regional History Center is pleased to offer tuition assistance to give students the opportunity to explore their creativity, expand their imaginations, and enhance their knowledge of the world around them at our Adventures in History Summer Camp programs. (For more on this year's camp themes and descriptions, visit our website, thehistorycenter.org.)

Eligibility: Assistance is available to children who will be entering 1st through 9th grade in the fall of 2016 with documented financial need. Applicants may apply for tuition assistance for up to three children, limit one week of camp per child.

How to Apply

1. Complete the following pages of this tuition-assistance form.
2. Attach written documentation of financial need, such as a copy of a Food Stamp Card or Temporary Assistance for Needy Families card, documentation of free/reduced lunch program, or a letter from an official social service agency.
3. Attach a letter of recommendation from a teacher, counselor, mentor, or coach in support of the student's interest in attending the camp and how it will benefit him/her.
4. Send your completed application and financial-need documentation by email to megan.keener@ocfl.net or by mail to:
